Flexitallic recently awarded the 2nd Annual Pablo Rodriguez Memorial Scholarships. 2012 saw the first year of awarding two $5,000 scholarships to eligible Flexitallic employee's children or grandchildren. The 2013 recipients are Jessica Cerda, daughter of Flexitallic employee Sabino Cerda and Matthew Thanh Huynh, son of Flexitallic employees My (Mia) Brennan and Tuan Huynh. Both received $5,000 scholarships to the college of their choice.

Recipients were chosen from entries where students wrote an essay on why they deserved the scholarships.

Flexitallic CEO, Jerry Lastovica, awarded the scholarships at a ceremony held at Flexitallic's Deer Park operations. Pablo's mother and younger sister were also on hand at the ceremony.

The Pablo Rodriguez Memorial Scholarship was established by Flexitallic in remembrance of Pablo Rodriguez a young, talented and energetic engineer. The Scholarship is intended to contribute to the dream of young people pursuing a college education.
